

M.W. Watermark filter presses can be equipped with a shifter safety guard. The shifter safety guard is a wire mesh screen mounted on the shifter on both sides of the press. The purpose of the safety guard is to prevent injuries to personnel who might approach the press while the plate shifter is operating.

